

Entrance Song

At the entrance of the priest, the people begin their celebration of the Mass with a song.

Opening Prayer
(Prayer at the end of the Procession)

At the conclusion of the entrance, each of the faithful prays in silence, and then the priest gathers the prayers of all the people and presents them to God the Father
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

First Reading
from the Old Testament

In the first reading,
we listen to the Word that God first
addressed to his people, Israel, and now addresses to each of us.

Response to the Old Testament Reading

After having listened to the Word of God
contained in the Old Testament,
we respond with
a psalm.

Epistle

In the second reading, we listen to the Word of God contained in the letters of the apostles, sometimes
called "The Epistles".
Now they address
each one of us.

Gospel Acclamation

Before listening to the Gospel, we say or sing and "Alleluia"
which means,
"Praise to God".

Gospel

The third and most important solemn reading is the Gospel in which the events of Jesus' life and his words are proclaimed. Jesus taught and healed some of the people in his time on the earth. Now he teaches and saves us with his all powerful Word.

Prayers of the Faithful

In response to the reading of the Gospel
we pray for the needs of the Church and individuals. All those who are present share
in one another's
concerns, praying
together, "Lord, hear
our prayer."

Preparation Song

A song is sung as the gifts are being carried in procession to be blessed and sanctified at the Eucharistic table.

Prayer over the Bread and Wine

After the preparation of the bread and wine,
each of the faithful prays in silence. Then the priest gathers our prayers and presents
them to God the Father through Jesus Christ
our Lord.

Preface

The Eucahristic Prayer begins with thanksgiving and praise to God the Father through Jesus Christ. The Assembly asks that their voice be joined with the saints and angels so that the heavens and the earth might give eternal glory to God.

Communion Song

The faithful sing a song when going to Communion.

Prayer After Communion

After Communion, each person wants to share his or her secrets with the Lord in silence. Then the priest gathers all the prayers and expressions of love, presenting them to God the Father through Jesus Christ our Lord.
